

Joint Virtual Zoom Convening | July 21, 2022

Speaker Bios

Kim Keating, MEd, is a senior policy research analyst on the Federal Policy Team of ZERO TO THREE's Policy Center, where her primary responsibility is development of the annual State of Babies Yearbook in partnership with Child Trends. Prior to joining ZERO TO THREE, Ms. Keating had 25 years of experience conducting child welfare program evaluations and providing evaluation training and technical assistance to Administration for Children's grantees, such as those serving abandoned infants and substance exposed newborns; and grantees implementing collaborative delivery of TANF and child welfare services. Previously, at Ellsworth Associates/Xtria, she conducted numerous research projects for the Office of Head Start and managed the annual Head Start Program Information Report data collection. Ms. Keating holds a master's in counseling and human development with specialization in infant/toddler mental health from George Mason University and a bachelor's in psychology from the University of Virginia. E-mail:

KKeating@zerotothree.org

Jaclyn Szrom has worked with ZERO TO THREE for many years, utilizing her research and analysis skills to support implementation of best practices for infants and toddlers. As Senior Federal Policy Analyst, Ms. Szrom played an integral role in developing a child welfare policy agenda and writing key supporting resources. Later, Ms. Szrom worked on conducting data analysis and trends, developing a decision-making framework for selecting evidence-based interventions, and overall policy and sustainability for the Infant-Toddler Court Program. Earlier in her career, Ms. Szrom worked at the Child Nutrition Division of the Food and Nutrition Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, where she interpreted policy, provided technical assistance to regional and state offices, and conducted site visits around the country as part of the USDA Farm to School Team supporting states in innovating their efforts to purchase school meals from local farms. Ms. Szrom holds a Master of Public Administration from The Maxwell School at Syracuse University and a Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies from The College of New Jersey. E-mail:

jszrom@zerotothree.org

Lindsay Calveri is a Parent Leader for the National Infant-Toddler Court Program (ITCP). She is the mother to an amazing child named Gabriel and graduate of the Polk County Recovery Court Program. She has also worked closely with Project Iowa and Children and Families of Iowa.