The National Conference of State Legislatures is the bipartisan organization that serves the legislators and staffs of the states, commonwealths and territories.

NCSL provides research, technical assistance and opportunities for policymakers to exchange ideas on the most pressing state issues and is an effective and respected advocate for the interests of the states in the American federal system. Its objectives are:

- To improve the quality and effectiveness of state legislatures.
- To promote policy innovation and communication among state legislatures.
- To ensure state legislatures a strong, cohesive voice in the federal system.

The Conference operates from offices in Denver, Colorado, and Washington, D.C.

Acknowledgments

The American Society of Legislative Clerks and Secretaries (ASLCS) and the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) gratefully acknowledge the many individuals who helped make this publication possible. The members of the ASLCS Committee on Inside the Legislative Process made content decisions and oversaw document production. Numerous legislative clerks and secretaries took time to complete the survey.

Special recognition is given to Brenda Erickson, NCSL program principal, who drafted the survey, compiled data, wrote most of the book and coordinated its publication. Thanks also are extended to Leann Stelzer, NCSL editor, who reviewed document drafts.
