

Cybersecurity Task Force Virtual Meeting, June 18, 2021

AGENDA

Friday, June 18, 2021 1-3 pm ET / 12-2 pm CT / 11 am-1 pm MT / 10 am-12 pm PT
1 pm EDT	Welcome and Introductions Task Force Co-Chairs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Assemblymember Jacqui Irwin, California</li> <li>• Senator Thomas C. Alexander, South Carolina</li> </ul>
1-1:15 pm EDT	CISA Briefing Learn about the Cybersecurity &amp; Infrastructure Security Agency's (CISA) priorities for 2021 and how state legislators can engage, partner, and collaborate with CISA. Speaker: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Nitin Natarajan, Deputy Director, CISA</li> </ul>
1:15-2:15 pm EDT	The Intractable Problem of Ransomware Join CISA and others for an in-depth discussion of recent ransomware incidents and how the Administration, CISA, and the private sector are working to secure our systems. Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Alaina R. Clark, Assistant Director for Stakeholder Engagement, CISA</li> <li>• Kemba Walden, Assistant General Counsel, Digital Crimes Unit, Microsoft</li> <li>• Senator Susan Lee, Maryland</li> <li>• Representative Jason Saine, North Carolina</li> </ul>
2:15-2:30 pm EDT	Managing Cyber Threats Through Effective Governance NCSL, NGA, the Center for Internet Security (CIS), and the University of Albany collaborated to create a Call to Action for state governors and legislatures. It presents four action steps and a set of eight tools to guide the decisions states must make and execute to respond to an ever-increasing and evolving threat to state assets and operations. The report, Managing Cyber Threats through Effective Governance, sets forth an actionable approach to ensuring that each state has cyber governance and can maximize investments while securing their state. Speaker: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• John Gilligan, CEO, Center for Internet Security, former CIO at the U.S. Department of Energy and at the U.S. Air Force</li> </ul>
2:30-2:45 pm EDT	Business Meeting Discuss potential topics for the next task force meeting, which will be held in conjunction with the NCSL Legislative Summit in Tampa, FL. Task Force Co-Chairs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Assemblymember Jacqui Irwin, California</li> <li>• Senator Thomas C. Alexander, South Carolina</li> </ul>

NCSL Cybersecurity Task Force Staff:
Susan Frederick, NCSL Washington, DC Office
Pam Greenberg, NCSL Denver Office
Abbie Gruwell, NCSL Washington, DC Office